

The Sheldon Vexler Theatre

Critically-Acclaimed, Award-Winning Black Box Theatre

August 25 – September 16, 2018

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE

-Tennessee Williams

A haunting drama about psychological delusion

With nowhere else to go, Blanche travels to the New Orleans French Quarter to live with her sister, Stella, and brother-in-law, Stanley. The classic play reveals human nature undermined by romantic illusions, which leads to the rejection of the realities of life, tragic self-delusion, and, in the end, to madness.

Sylvia

-A.R. Gurney

A modern romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog

After settling into an empty nest with his wife, a man brings home a dog he found—or that has found him. A street-smart mutt, the dog becomes a hilarious and touching complication which evolves into a major bone of contention causing the marriage to be put in serious jeopardy.

Leading Ladies

-Ken Ludwig

A highly combustible comedy about mistaken identities

Two down-on-their-luck actors hear that an old lady is leaving her fortune to her long-lost nephews. The actors resolve to pass themselves off as her relatives and abscond with the cash. Trouble starts when they learn the relatives aren't nephews, they're nieces! "Hey- we're actors- What could possibly go wrong?"

"So funny, it will make people cackle till their faces hurt." - Houston Press
Appropriate for all audiences

May 4 – June 2, 2019

CABARET

~Masteroff, Kander & Ebb

A dark musical about escaping the trials of life

As the 1920s draw to a close, locals forget their troubles in the seedy Kit Kat nightclub. The wry commentary of the bawdy songs explores the dark, heady, and tumultuous life of Berlin while Germany slowly yields to the emerging Third Reich. In here... life is beautiful.

"Divinely, dangerously, decadent."
